To whom this may concern please hear me out; Its basically about a Mercedes Benz that was stolen from me buy Harrison County Sheriff Department.

The car was an 07 model the book value on it was about $6,000 according to my iphone with the miles and the condition the car was in. The guy want $3,000, I gave him 2,600 dollars. He was desperate for the money. He also had the title which was clear. The car didn't have a tag on it; still had the dealer ship tag. So I thought he has been trying to sell it. There were two owners on the title signed already; so I buy the vehicle straight legit. I have bought four cars last year and never had a problem like this.

Next day put the car in my name buy a tag and ride. Three days later Long Beach PD pulls me over and says my car is stolen. They arrest me and put me in the back of the police car for about an hour. Long Beach realize that the car is mine and have no choice but to let me go. Detective Graws from Long Beach reach for me. Two days later the Sheriff comes to my house and take my vehicle out of my yard and tell me I have to go to civil court to get my vehicle back. No warrant, no type of paper work was shown. All of my neighbors are outside looking at the Sheriff Department taking my car. There has been no court date issued and they just gave my car back to the previous owner, with the car still in my name, my tag, and my registration. Which I know for a fact was a inside job. They say its not what you know its who you know; that was the case in this situation. The sheriff was telling me in so many words. How? Why? I have asked these questions for the last 7 months so this is what it has come to. The only thing left to do. I have all the info on my vehicle.
